WRIT PETITION NO.16978 OF 2005

O R D E R:

The petitioner states that he submitted a complaint on 5.7.2005, before the respondent herein, alleging that certain individuals, named therein, have trespassed into his land, and threatened himself and his wife, with dire consequences. His grievance is that no action has been taken thereon.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government

Pleader for Home.

The petitioner claims to have submitted a complaint, before the respondent, making certain allegations against some third parties. The truth or otherwise of the same, is not relevant, at this stage. If, in fact, the petitioner had submitted a complaint, the respondent is under obligation to enquire and investigate into the same and take necessary steps. The petitioner cannot be required to wait, indefinitely.

Hence, the writ petition is disposed of, directing the respondent to take necessary steps, in accordance with law, on the complaint said to have been made by the petitioner, on 5.7.2005, without any further delay. There shall be no order as to costs.
